Welcome to Akamaru Inu

We are the first information hub on safe investing into tokens from decentralized exchanges. Exclusive dApps to earn passive income.

Who are you, Akamaru?

Akamaru (赤丸, Akamaru) is a nin-dog (忍犬, ninken) from Naruto. Akamaru envisions the success of all investors involved, and the community will achieve this milestone as a whole. With the growth of the entire cryptospace, there are large groups of newly joining/invited investors that are less exposed to the information and knowledge that come into play with investing into DeFi (decentralized finance). Akamaru is going to change this.

Akamaru was tokenized with the sole purpose of being a hub for safe investing. Providing correct and punctual information will lead to investors being offered the helping hand needed to understand the risks of investing in the cryptospace. In order to make sure all investors are given the opportunity for the greatest wealth transfer humanity has seen to date-- Akamaru is here to develop cute tools to make safe decisions a little more simple.
